Part 1

Up, rise and shine here's a bite to eat.

5 Train till you drop now— a one two three. We're on to-day and they

8 want to see our cir - - cus world the 11 life that we live. Though we're work ing day and night this world is all we know.

15 Don't get used to where we are cause now we have to go. If you fall in love you'll have to put your heart on hold. But

19 feel - ing sad is not as bad as love from hot to cold. Fold up the chairs, put the 22 tents a - way, Pack up your bags soon we're on our way.

25 Hook up the car-a-van and close this day of our cir - - cus

28 world, the life that we live. There's no time to 32 take a break. Ev - en when your mus - cles ache. Some - times I'd like to have my 36 own lit-tle place. but then I'd have to wash my dir-ty lit-tle face.
