

Trick or Treat, it's Halloween Today
(Daniel Laubacher)

Yes we are in the mood for a party
Everyday is fine with me
The time's just right and we're all here together
Everyone's so happy.

Come along and have some fun,
Lots to eat and games to play.
Trick or treat it's Halloween today.

It's hard to tell who is "who", who are you?
Are you "you" or are you "me"?
Who is she and what should he be?
A cat or a mouse or a big tree?

Halloween is mystery, Magic acts and trickery
What you see is not to be believed.

We knew that our teacher was behind this all along
How else would we then get a treat or two or three or four? (But)
We were never really scared,
Though our knees did shake (but only a little bit)
We knew the dragon was a fake, a fake, a big, fat, fake.

Yes we are in the mood for a party
Everyday is fine with me
The time's just right and we're all here together
Everyone's so happy.

Come along and have some fun,
Lots to eat and games to play.
Trick or treat it's Halloween
